Committee Reports

Community Relations (Beverly Wolfe):

They had a meeting to review revisions have been made to the borough's website.

Streets (Beverly Wolfe):

Pothole Killers have submitted a proposal for future maintenance of potholes. This will be reviewed at an upcoming meeting. They returned and finished the potholes on the other side of Route 1 as expected. The streets were swept also this past month.

Community Development (Heffelfinger):

The first meeting on the Spring Valley Farm Project was held at the Middletown Township Municipal Building. This was a meet and greet for everyone that will be involved. The next meeting will be sometime in August or early September.

Insurance (Barbara Heffelfinger):

The committee met with our insurance representative to review policies for next year. They project premiums to be lower but this won't be confirmed until the next meeting in September.

Community Development (Barbara Heffelfinger):

ARLE Grant application has been submitted again for street signs. That will be awarded this summer.

Lynn Bush, Bucks County Planning Commission, attended the June 29th work session and explained the MEDI Program. She complimented the borough for the plans completed in prior years.
